

Human Rights Education Now! Podcast
Topic Listing
Episode: Seventeen/Yvonne Vissing, Part One

Artwork by: Kimberly Bariring

Prepared by: Bill Fernekes

Date: 8.04.2023

Yvonne Vissing, Episode 17

Time Span	Topics
00:00-01:35	Introduction
01:36-03:56	Initial interest in human rights and human rights education
03:57-06:23	Significance of the Convention on the Rights of the Child and her work in dealing with the social problems of children; protection, provision and participation elements of the CRC
06:24-09:36	US failure to ratify the CRC and comparison with other world states' approach to the CRC and other UN human rights treaties; misunderstanding of privilege and its contrast with rights; failure of US executive branch to submit the CRC for ratification
09:37-17:36	Connections between Yvonne Vissing's clinical experiences and human rights education; how human rights treaties can inform strategies to address social problems, such as homelessness; government's long-term failure to address homelessness as a family problem; contrasting models for addressing homelessness and their impact
17:37-19:57	Strategies for educating the population about homelessness; confronting the simplistic approach to homelessness in the mass media; importance of collecting and sharing data on homelessness
19:58-24:05	Centers for Children and Youth and Human Rights Education at Salem State University; programs delivered by the Centers;

children's human rights resource library; class on human rights offered to students; support from other faculty and university leadership; development of partnerships and internships

24:06-25:42

Closing Remarks

Tags

human rights; human rights education; children's rights; Convention on the Rights of the Child; homelessness