

A national network dedicated to building a culture of human rights

Human Rights Education Now! Podcast Topic Listing

Episode 36 — Glenn Mitoma, Part One

April 19, 2024

Artwork by: Kimberly Bariring

Prepared by: Jess Terbrueggen

Time Span	Topics
00:00-01:34	Introduction
01:35-07:00	Origins of his interest in human rights and human rights education; Documenting human rights issues using photography and other media
07:01-10:27	Work at the Univ. of Connecticut; Partnership programs between university programs and K-12 education; Professional development programs in HRE for K-12 educators and their students; Personal challenges in forging partnerships within a university setting
10:28-15:00	Challenges and opportunities for HRE at Columbia University and other higher education institutions; Seeking to build more HRE partnership connections in New York City and the region
15:01-19:49	Opportunities and challenges for HRE integration in US higher education; Creation of University and College Consortium for HRE; Sees a growing interest among students in programs that advance justice and among faculty in interdisciplinary work on social issues; Barriers constraining non-traditional programs in HRE
19:50-23:00	Relationships between higher education and popular education in HRE; Popular and community education connections to transformative HRE
23:01-30:21	Connections between HRE and active K-12 citizenship education; HRE seen as essential for democratic civic education; HRE as an “insurgent” effort to reform citizenship education; Revisiting history education and the concept of shared memory using an HRE lens; Viewing US history as part of a global, transnational process; Efforts at censoring history and social studies instruction

30:22-32:10 Transition to HRE and social justice; Closing remarks

Tags Human rights; human rights education; University partnership programs; HRE in Higher education; Interdisciplinary scholarship; Popular education; Transformative HRE; Civic Education; Censorship; Transnational history education; Social justice